Progress Report: Team Shelter USA Best Practice Implementation

March 8, 2019

Updates:

- Began heartworm testing every adoptable dog. Team Shelter recommended testing all dogs on intake, which will be implemented upon addition of staff.
- All cats are being fed dry food throughout the day and canned food twice daily.
- All kennels currently have barcode cards installed (except isolation room). Staff will be trained on using barcodes for kennel inventory.
- Management team met with representatives of the Midwest Region of the Best Friends Animal Society to discuss starting a Return-to-Field program for cats, considered best practice, according to Team Shelter's review.
- Mixing station installed for accelerated hydrogen peroxide, to ensure proper dilution and eliminate waste. Team Shelter suggested hydrogen peroxide as a more effective disinfectant. Use of all previous disinfectants have been discontinued, and the ARC has fully transitioned to accelerated hydrogen peroxide as of Feb. 12.
- Developed a draft foster contract. Management team plans to meet in March to decide on specific contract language. According to Team Shelter, most stray dogs in public shelters are reunited with their families within three days. Ohio state law requires licensed dogs to be held for 14 days, and those additional 11 days create overcrowding and more stress on the pets and shelter staff. A foster program will help alleviate this.
 - We've done a small pilot with the foster-to-adopt, in which adopters take their pet home while awaiting an appointment for surgery.
- To minimize cross-contamination during surgery, two individual towels are being used for each patient.
- Conducted training with Animal Care and Control Officers on the use of animal control pole. Training is scheduled for Animal Care Providers, clinic staff, and clerical staff in mid-March.
- As of March 4, approximately 25 automatic water dispensers have been repaired in the kennels.
- Surveyed over 50 current rescue partners for feedback on ARC and working with rescues. Twenty rescue partners completed the survey, and we're planning a community meeting in which all rescue partners will be invited to discuss results.
